LOCALETTES.
All trains were on time last night. All the banks of Fort Worth are in a most flourishing condition. Church Wilburn was fined $25 and costs in the county court yesterday. The society young gentlemen will give a hop at the pavilion to-morrow night. The vagrants in the lower part of the city were rounded up yesterday by the officers. Sixteen ladies from different sections of the country registered at Ginocchio's hotel yesterday and last night. THE GAZETTE does not print anonymous communications. The name must accompany all communications, as a guarantee of good faith. Mr. George Cornelius, the polite and attentive night clerk of the Pickwick hotel, is one of the best and most deservedly popular hotel men in the South. The case of E. Cooper for selling beer on Sunday occupied much of the day in the county court yesterday and was not concluded when court adjourned. The officers yesterday morning made what was thought and intended to be an important arrest. The man, who proved to be N. W. Givens, was not the one wanted, and was in consequence released. Weatherford may be a little behind some of our other cities in a commercial way, but can certainly produce legal talent that will compare favorably with the best in the state. This fact was clearly demonstrated in the Milliken trial yesterday. An attachment was run upon the stock of goods of J. J. Laurie yesterday afternoon, by Samuel C. Davis & Co., of St. Louis for the sum of $495.00, and later in the evening another attachment was taken out in favor of Mills & Gibbs of New York for the sum of $1155. Two mules owned by the Fort Worth Street Railway company became frightened as the driver was unhitching them near the Union depot yesterday afternoon and ran up Front street until they reached Main and Fifteenth, at which point they were stopped by a young man. One of the mules was badly injured by the double-tree which was attached to the team. Cigarette smokers prefer Opera Puffs because they do not stick to the lips. Another Car-Load Of Ceres and Calla Lily flour just arrived at the Fort Worth Grocer Co.'s, and it is fine and don't you forget it. The concert and hop announced for to-night by the Pavilion band and Tyrolean troupe is postponed to Monday night, July 13.

Bread-makers who have never used Silver Loaf baking powder are requested to give it a trial. It is recommended for its purity and strength and has never yet disappointed the bread-maker. Dividend Notice. At the regular meeting of the board of directors of the City National bank of Fort Worth, Tex., held on July 1, 1895, a semi-annual dividend of 6 per cent. was declared payable to the shareholders on demand. G. R. NEWTON, Cashier. Tomatoes, Tomatoes, Nice and fresh, 25 cents per box, at the Fort Worth Grocer Co.'s. Buy Your Mosquito Frames from Pinkard & Joyce. The half-canopy is the best. Flour. The following popular brands of flour are constantly carried in stock by Turner & McClure: Cream Patent, Gold Leaf, Our Diplomats, Leader Patent, Royal Patent, Crown Patent, Gold Dust and Beauty. Half Canopy Mosquito frames, with the genuine bobbinet bars, at Pinkard & Joyce's. Terraline Ware. The Fort Worth China Co. have still a nice stock of terraline plaques and vases. These goods are deservedly popular, and are having a rapid sale. Notice to Contractors. Sealed bids will be received by the commissioners' court of Jack county, Texas, up to 2 p. m. July 15, for the erection at Jacksboro of a stone courthouse. Plans and specifications can be seen at the office of the county judge, Jacksboro, and at office of J. E. Flanders, architect, Dallas, Tex. The right reserved to reject any and all bids. By order of the commissioners' court, Jack county, Tex. Thousands of inexperienced housekeepers owe their success as bread-makers to the superior merit of Silver Loaf baking powder.

PERSONAL.
Mr. John A. Lee of Louisville, Ky., is at the Pickwick. Mrs. Douglass of Cincinnati, Ohio, is at Ginocchio's hotel. Miss Stella Hamilton of Memphis is visiting at the Mansion hotel. Mr. R. G. Eyrych of New Orleans is quartered at the Pickwick. Mr. T. B. Micore and wife of Memphis, Tenn., are at the Mansion. Mr. E. G. Griffith of Chicago registered at the Pickwick last night. Mrs. E. N. Carrington of Smithfield, Tex., is at the Grand Central. Mr. James B. Simpson, a well-known banker of Dallas, is at the Pickwick. Miss Lena C. Barrett of Colorado City is stopping with friends at Ginocchio's hotel. Land Commissioner Abel of the T. & P. was in the city last night on the way to Dallas. Mrs. J. Davidson and Miss Lillie Ford of Coleman, Tex., are registered at Ginocchio's hotel. Miss A. W. Aldridge of Lexington, Miss., arrived last night and is stopping at Ginocchio's hotel. Mrs. Davidson mother of Mr. Frank Twombly, who has been quite ill, is now convalescent. Mr. J. W. Pratt is now, THE GAZETTE is glad to learn, able to be up, but still too weak to get out. Mr. J. H. Shelly of St. Louis and Mr. Ed. McCarthy of Louisville, Ky., are stopping at the Pickwick. Mr. David Boaz left last night for Deavenport, Iowa, where he goes to close up an extensive land trade. Mrs. Robert Toole, wife of Editor Toole of the Dallas Herald, was in the city last night en route home from the West. Superintendent Hearne of the International & Great Northern railroad arrived yesterday in his special car from Palestine. Mrs. Wheeler and daughter of Denison, Mrs. Cauthorn of Cisco and Mrs. Winstons of Mineral Wells are stopping at Ginocchio's hotel. C. C. Allen, Esq., secretary of the Fort Worth & New Orleans railway, arrived from a short business trip to the West yesterday morning. Miss Eddie Calahan of Mineola is in the city and visiting at the residence of W. B. Tucker, on the South side, where she will spend some days. Miss Gracie Darling, much to the regret of her many Fort Worth friends, left yesterday for New York, at which place she will join her parents. Miss Mary T. Furman, a young lady of Stonewall, La., is visiting her relatives, Dr. Furman's family, in the city. Miss Furman arrived last night and will remain several weeks before returning home. We wish the young lady a pleasant stay.

Among the Weatherford attorneys in attendance on the Milliken habeas corpus trial yesterday a GAZETTE reporter noticed the following: Hon. J. W. Stephens, A. J. Ball, B. G. Bidwell, G. A. McCall, E. P. Nicholson, A. Stevenson, J. T. Harcourt; also W. K. Baylor, sheriff of Parker county, James Steele and H. S. Sisk, deputy sheriffs, H. Smythe, editor Weatherford Times, H. M. and J. M. Kidwell, Sam H. Milliken and Judge J. W. Squires.

Mr. W. M. Young is the father of a fine girl baby, and while not quite so happy as he would have been had it been a boy, yet he carried a smile that can only be produced by a father when rejoicing over the advent of his first baby. Mother, baby and father are all doing well, especially the father. THE GAZETTE congratulates friend Young and his estimable wife, and hopes they may, from this small beginning, live to rejoice over the birth of grand and even great-grand children.

The meeting of the board of directors and stockholders of the Citizens' Building and Loan association has been postponed until Friday evening, the 10th inst., at 4:30 o'clock. B. B. WALKER, Secretary.

Terraline Ware. The Fort Worth China Co. have still a nice stock of terraline plaques and vases. These goods are deservedly popular, and are having a rapid sale.

Notice to Contractors. Sealed bids will be received by the commissioners' court of Jack county, Texas, up to 2 p. m. July 15, for the erection at Jacksboro of a stone courthouse. Plans and specifications can be seen at the office of the county judge, Jacksboro, and at office of J. E. Flanders, architect, Dallas, Tex. The right reserved to reject any and all bids. By order of the commissioners' court, Jack county, Tex.
